

About PEAK

At PEAK Credibility Training Assessment Center, we believe a school that values real world experience enriches the learning journey. We place value in the continuity of learning so the materials being taught persist in the mind of the learner well beyond surface levels of understanding and retention of the steps to conduct testing.

Offering a large and ever growing suite of in-person and online courses, PEAK is uniquely positioned to be your training partner for every step of your polygraph career.

Objectives

Our mission is to provide governments (federal, state and local) and private individuals with the highest quality credibility assessment training and consulting services available. We will help our students utilize best practices and leading edge scientific procedures.

Our Vision

Benefit the credibility assessment profession and enhance security and safety worldwide.
